Chapter 1 by Jared

"You all have no reason to follow me. I am just a ordinary person like all of you. But darkness is sweeping into our world and soon in will consume all of our world. The Empire has already fallen. When i left the Legion i vowed to return on day and bring the empire back to its former glory but to do that i must first destroy the coming darkness but i can not do it alone. I need followers. I need a army. I need a Inquisition. I need you. This will be a daunting task and if you are weak then leave now but those willing to stand against the darkness i say welcome to the Inquisition."
